PEACE OR WAR BY MONDAY

ALLIES DELIVER WHAT IS PRACTICALLY ULTIMATUM TO TURKEY.

TERMS INACCEPTABLE

BALKANS' VIEWS EXPRESSED BY MONTENEGRIN DELEGATION.

TONE OF DELEGATES PRECISE

Threat of Warfare Coupled With Demand—Counter Proposition Is Made By Turks.

London, Jan. 3.—Although the word "ultimatum" was not pronounced, what practically is an ultimatum was presented to Turkey at today's sitting of the peace conference on behalf of the Balkan allies.

Lazar Mijuskovitch, head of the Montenegrin delegation, who presided, told Rehad Pasha after the Turks had submitted a proposal which was considered unacceptable, that either by Monday Turkey must find a way to renounce to the Balkan allies her rights over the island of Crete, cede the islands in the Aegean sea, and present a rectification of the frontier of European Turkey, which would include Adrianople in the territory of the allies, or the allies would consider that further negotiations for peace were useless.

Immediately after the minutes of the last sitting had been approved, Mijuskovitch asked Rehad Pasha to present to the delegates the promised new Turkish proposals. Rehad, who had been working hard over a cypher telegram until a few minutes before the session was called to order, seemed rather depressed. On rising, he said his imperial government, dealing further to emphasize the conciliatory spirit that animated it, had authorized the Turkish military and technical experts to attach to the Ottoman delegation to mark on a map the proposed new frontiers between Turkey and the allies, which he would present later.

Meanwhile he read what he called "the last possible terms" Turkey can offer.

These were as follows: "First, that Crete, enjoying simple suzerainty of the Sultan, but in reality under the protection of Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy, constitutes a question which can be dealt with only by the powers under the responsibility of which the administration of the island is conducted, especially regarding finance, police and justice.

"Second, that Turkey shall keep her islands. That she cannot renounce those near the Dardanelles because they are indispensable to the security of the channel of Constantinople, or the Bosphorus, as it is better known, or those further south, because they form an integral part of Anatolia.

Third, that rectification of Thracian frontier shall begin from Segot (called Port Lagon) in Karagatch Bay and run almost perpendicularly northward. This not only would leave Adrianople in the hands of the Turks, but also the entire coast along the Black Sea now occupied by the Bulgarians, to Lake Derkon, beyond which the Bulgarians have penetrated. The coast line, as it is better known, or those further south, because they form an integral part of Anatolia.

This not only would leave Adrianople in the hands of the Turks, but also the entire coast along the Black Sea now occupied by the Bulgarians, to Lake Derkon, beyond which the Bulgarians have penetrated. The coast line, as it is better known, or those further south, because they form an integral part of Anatolia.

Each leader of the allies, after the Turkish terms had been presented, declared that they were unacceptable and insisted on Turkey accepting those proposed by the allies. It was then that M. Mijuskovitch issued, orally, what seemed to be the ultimatum of the allies.

"The allies' delegates," said M. Mijuskovitch, "see with regret that the Ottoman delegates take no account of the results of the war and the allies consequently would be justified in breaking off the negotiations.

"In order, however, to afford fresh proof of their conciliatory spirit, they request the Ottoman delegates to make them at a sitting at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, January 6, a proposition on these terms."

Counter Proposition.

Here M. Mijuskovitch submitted a counter proposition to that of the Turks. A summary of it follows:

First, Turkey shall renounce whatever rights she possesses over Crete, leaving the allies to settle with the protecting powers the other points concerning the island.

Second, Turkey shall cede unconditionally all her islands in the Aegean archipelago including those provisionally held by Italy.

Third, the allies propose such rectifications of the frontier as will include Adrianople in Bulgarian territory.

M. Mijuskovitch added that the allies, already having been most generous in repeatedly giving Turkey time to reconsider the situation, would wait no longer than Monday for Turkey's terms, which would be possible as a basis for further negotiations.

Tone Adds Color.

The tone of the Montenegrin's statement gave it the character of an ultimatum. All the delegates understood this, including Rehad Pasha, who lost the calm diplomatic impassibility of the first day of the conference. As an able fencer, he quickly tried to parry the stroke of his opponents and annul the gravity of M. Mijuskovitch's statement by declaring that he believed he would be able to resume Saturday afternoon discussion on the points objected to. As the allies had

To Be United States Senator

RHENZI M. JOHNSTON.

Editor in Chief of the Houston Post and President of the Houston Printing Company.

It has already been announced that as soon as Senator Bailey resigns Col. Johnston will be appointed United States senator to succeed him. No man in Texas has done more for the organized democracy of the state than Col. Johnston. Through his influence as editor of the Post he has made a strong fight for the party on every occasion. He was for years the member of the Democratic national committee for Texas. His efforts have always been patriotic, as he has been urged to become a candidate for lieutenant governor and for governor, and on every occasion he has declined. He is a native of Georgia, but came to Texas many years ago. He was for years an Austin correspondent, but later became attached to the editorial staff of the Houston Post and by gradual accumulation of property and by promotion he became the head of the great Texas daily.

SENATOR BAILEY RESIGNS; TO TAKE EFFECT AT ONCE

Washington, Jan. 3.—Senator Joseph W. Bailey today sent his resignation to the Senate, to take effect immediately. R. M. Johnston of Houston is now in the city and Senator Bailey said he would be appointed by the governor to succeed him, with the expectation that the legislature, when it meets, would elect him to fill out the unexpired term.

DOES NOT HESITATE

ATTORNEY GENERAL LOONEY
SAYS HOME RULE AMEND-MENT IS ADOPTED.

Governor Will Now Issue His Proclamation and the Provision Is Part of Organic Law.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 3.—In his first formal opinion, Attorney General R. F. Looney today advised Governor Colquitt that "We do not feel that there is sufficient doubt about the correctness of our position to hesitate a moment about advising that the necessary proclamation be issued, declaring the amendment (the home rule amendment) affecting city charters a part of the organic law of this state."

Governor Colquitt says that he will be governed by the advice of the attorney general, as he had requested his opinion that he might know what steps to pursue, since the amendment had been questioned. His proclamation putting it into effect will be issued at once. If any one desires to test its adoption, the contest, under the acts of the thirty-third legislature, should be filed in a Travis county district court tomorrow. Up to tonight no contest had been filed either in the local district courts or in the state supreme court. Attorney General Looney's opinion holds that the governor acted entirely within his discretion in not submitting the home rule amendment when the proposition was submitted, and that he acted correctly when he submitted it in the general election, the amendment having not been submitted in the special election.

13 DEATHS FROM MENINGITIS

Arkansas Health Officer Busy Investigating Disease.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 3.—Dr. C. W. Garrison, director of the Arkansas state board of health, returning tonight from Lepanto, where he went to investigate the situation created by an outbreak of spinal meningitis, said that he considered the situation well under control. The situation has been turned over to the county authorities, under the direction of County Judge J. M. Coppage.

Dr. Garrison reports another death from the disease late Thursday night, making the total in Lepanto thirteen.

4 AUTO BANDITS RUN AMUCK; GET AID OF WOMAN

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Four automobile bandits smashed in a jeweler's window here today and escaped with a tray of diamonds after a running revolver fight with police. Their escape was aided by a fashionably dressed woman who apparently fainted into the arms of a policeman as he started to draw his revolver. As soon as the thieves were out of sight the woman recovered herself and disappeared.

A few minutes later the bandits' car was boarded by a policeman, who charged them with speeding, and ordered them to drive to a police station. They wheeled into a quiet street and the policeman and there shot, stabbed and beat him and threw him off the car.

The men abandoned their automobile, which had been stolen just before the robbery, and disappeared in a crowded section of the west side.

Negro Hanged for Murder.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 3.—Will Wright, negro, was hanged today at Fort Payne for the murder of Patrick Murphy near Collinsville. This was the first legal execution in DeKalb county, Alabama.

POSTMASTERS TO STAY UNTIL TIME ENDS; TEXAS DISTRICT

Washington, Jan. 3.—Postmasters, whose terms do not expire for several years, may rest easy in the knowledge that there will be no general removals following the incoming of the democratic administration.

That present postmasters will be permitted to serve out their terms is indicated in the announcement of Congressman A. S. Burleson that offices in his district, outside of several for which he makes nominations, will not expire until after the nominations for the Sixty-fourth congress. In view of the close connection Congressman Burleson holds with President-elect Wilson, this statement is considered tantamount to formal notice of such a course by the president-elect.

In some circles it is taken to indicate also that Congressman Burleson is slated for a cabinet position, at least raising the supposition that he may not be a congressional candidate again.

Recommendations announced by Congressman Calhoun are Norman H. Martin for Weatherford, Bob Haynes for De Leon, George P. Knight for Stephenville and Ben S. Baldwin for Fort Worth.

Congressman Smith so far has decided but two nominations in the Sixteenth district, Ed Kennedy, he says, will be named for postmaster at Anson and J. J. Erwin at Ballinger.

Congressman Stephens says he will make no recommendations until after March 4.

For the Eleventh district, Congressman R. L. Henry announces the following recommendations: Temple, George C. Pegdett; Hamilton, John L. Spurlin; Hico, J. P. Rodgers; Gatesville, W. A. Smith; Rogers, B. T. Gardner; Killen, R. D. Tankersley; Marlin, John G. Oltorf; Waco, A. A. McColium; Lorena, W. R. McAdams; Moody, W. H. McCurdy; McGregor, Sam R. Brown, and Mart, John G. Davis.

Congressman Burleson on March 4 will make these recommendations: Austin, Jefferson Johnson; Bartlett, G. A. Lindemann; Bastrop, Thomas W. Cain; Brenham, Henry Mueller; Caldwell, Eck T. Oliver; Georgetown, Maj. P. T. Roche; Granger, C. E. Wayman; Round Rock, J. M. Jester; San Marcos, W. J. Jackman; Smithville, W. E. Jenkins; Somerville, E. G. Langhammer, and Taylor, John L. Brunner.

WOMAN HELD TO AWAIT PROBE OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

Houston, Texas, Jan. 3.—Mrs. A. B. Evers is detained at the county jail pending an investigation of the death of her husband, which occurred Christmas day. Doctors Slataper and Martin are making an analysis of the contents of the man's stomach and while no report has been made to officers it has been hinted that a trace of poison has been discovered.

Evers died following an illness of twenty minutes. His wife was with him at the time. She asked a physician to sign a death certificate, he claims, and offered to pay for it. He notified officers.

Justice of the Peace J. H. Crocker began an inquest but a verdict will not be announced until the physicians have completed their work. In the meantime the funeral arrangements are delayed.

Evers carried $500 insurance in the Woodmen of the World order in favor of his wife. Mrs. Evers made a statement to officers in which she claims her husband ate some mackerel and canned goods Christmas day. Later, she said, he became violently ill and before she could summon a physician he died. Mrs. Evers has been divorced from two former husbands. The second husband is a brother of Dr. Penn B. Thornton, a prominent physician here.

West Texas Wants School of Mines.

El Paso, Jan. 3.—West Texas representatives to the legislature are ready to make a strong fight this year for the establishment of a school of mines at El Paso under state control. Owners of the El Paso Military Institute are said to have offered the buildings below actual cost as a nucleus for the school. The El Paso representatives point out that Texas is the only state in the union with such a large mineral area without a school of mines.

Big Land Deal at Plainview.

Plainview, Tex., Jan. 3.—More than $500,000 has changed hands in a land deal just announced. R. M. and J. J. Eller, of Plainview, sold to I. C. Enoch, of Jackson, Miss., 53,420 acres in Bailey county, 60 miles west of Plainview. The price is said to have been $700,000.

EIGHT SENTENCED LABOR LEADERS

Above are shown eight of the thirty-eight prominent labor union leaders who were sentenced to varying terms as the result of their wholesale conviction in Judge Anderson's court at Indianapolis on forty counts included in connection with various dynamite explosion crimes perpetrated throughout the United States upon the property of non-union employers. They were permitted to bail yesterday. Those in the layout are, at left, top to bottom—H. S. Hockin, six years; J. E. Munsey of Salt Lake City, six years; James Coughlin, suspended sentence. ROCKEFELLER AGREES

THE OIL MILLIONAIRE ACKNOWLEDGES SUSPOENA THROUGH COUNSEL.

Ill Health May Interfere With His Appearing Before Probers, However—Search Halts.

New York, Jan. 3.—Wm. Rockefeller has agreed through his counsel, John A. Garver, to accept service of a subpoena to appear on January 13 before the Pujos committee of the house of representatives at Washington investigating the "money trust," according to announcement made tonight at the offices of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the committee.

Mr. Untermyer, in behalf of the committee, it was stated, has by the direction of Chairman Pujos accepted this offer. No intimation of the whereabouts of Mr. Rockefeller was contained in the statement.

Searching Party Recalled.

As a result of the agreement the sergeant at arms of the house has been instructed to discontinue his efforts to effect service on William Rockefeller.

While accepting service, the statement avers, Mr. Garver advised Mr. Untermyer that Rockefeller's condition of health is very precarious and that it will be impossible for him to appear as a witness at Washington or even to submit to examination at his home.

Mr. Rockefeller has been informed that having now submitted to the jurisdiction of the committee, he must present his excuses to the committee in due form for such action as it may deem proper. If it is established to the satisfaction of the committee that it will be impossible to obtain the testimony of Mr. Rockefeller without imperiling his life, the statement says, the committee would of course not feel justified in taking any such extreme action. It may, however, conclude to secure any independent opinion.

Mr. Garver tonight at his home confirmed the announcement that he had accepted service in behalf of Mr. Rockefeller. He did not care to state, he said, where Mr. Rockefeller was at the present.

Alleged Swindler in Court.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 3.—Frank C. Winchell, former president of the Oxford Linen mills of Brookfield, was arraigned in the federal court today for a preliminary hearing on charges of having used the mails in a scheme to defraud. Winchell's arrest followed the raid of two weeks ago on the offices of the Sterling Debenente company in New York and other cities. The Sterling concern, it is estimated, sold during its career of six years approximately $3,000,000 of the stocks of various companies, including the Oxford Linen mills. Much of this stock was in legitimate companies, but an enormous amount, it is alleged, was of bogus concerns and was worthless.

GASOLINE GOES UP

WITH THE FIRST OF THE YEAR THE PRICE IS BOOSTED. AUTOS USE MUCH.

Arbitrary Advance in Price Is Made at the Beginning of the New Year.

Gasoline, with the beginning of the new year, passed from the common list to the luxury class. The price of the fluid that furnished the power for most every automobile in Texas jumped from 9 cents to 17 cents a gallon and will almost double the expense account of motorists for the ensuing year.

The reason given by the oil companies for boosting the price so arbitrarily is attributed to the inroads made on the contingent supply during the past year. A local representative of an oil company said last night that the consumption had greatly exceeded the production in 1912 and greatly exhausted the reserve supply.

It is a known fact that more automobiles were in use in 1912 than any previous year since they came into practical use. A remarkable volume of gasoline is consumed daily to furnish power for these machines.

It is understood that the increase in price affects the whole south and southwest, although so marked an increase was not made at some points.

It was not generally known that the price of the automobile fuel had ascended skyward, but the owners of automobiles are becoming acquainted with the fact when they receive a bill for $8.50 instead of $4.50 for filling a 50-gallon tank.

It is understood that the increase in price affects the whole south and southwest, although so marked an increase was not made at some points.

Alleged Counterfeiter Arrested.

Washington, Jan. 3.—The arrest at Dathan, Ala., of John Newsome on a charge of counterfeiting coins reported to secret service headquarters here today brings into custody an old offender, according to the officials.

Twenty dollars in counterfeit coins and plaster moulds for dollars, halves, quarters and nickels, it is said, were taken with Newsome, who was convicted at Montgomery, Ala., in 1909, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment for counterfeiting.

Pittman's Memory Honored.

New York, Jan. 3.—Stenographers throughout the country today observed the centenary of the birth of Sir Isaac Pittman, inventor of modern shorthand. There were commemorative exercises in public schools, colleges and other institutions here and similar exercises were held simultaneously in England under auspices of the lord mayor of London.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Appeal bonds must be given if the thirty-two of the thirty-three labor leaders convicted of conspiracy to transport dynamite are to take advantage of the granting of a writ of superdeas by the United States circuit court of appeals of this city today.

Whether this amount can be obtained was admitted by counsel for the defendants to be a matter of doubt but they expressed the belief that a writ of superdeas by the United States circuit court of appeals of this city today.

Decision involves only thirty-two of the thirty-three men now in the Leavenworth penitentiary, as Herbert S. Hockin, designated among his fellow prisoners as the "informer," will not appeal.

Judges Baker and S. on heard the arguments and the decision was given orally by Judge Baker. He took occasion to intimate that undue haste was manifested at Indianapolis in committing the defendants to prison.

REID'S BODY IS NOW IN AMERICA

GREAT BRITAIN DELIVERS THE CORPSE TO UNITED STATES OFFICERS.

LIES IN NEW YORK CATHEDRAL

Funeral Takes Place Today—High Officials Headed by President Taft to Attend.

New York, Jan. 3.—Great Britain today delivered to his countrymen the body of Whitlaw Reid, editor, statesman and American ambassador, who died in London. The English cruiser Natal brought the body home, and tonight it lies under the stars and stripes in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

President Taft, dignitaries from the army and navy and representatives of foreign powers will attend the funeral here tomorrow. As the Natal moved up the North River at the end of her mission, the American flag floated at half mast above her. The only decoration of the artillery caisson which bore the ambassador's body to the cathedral was a floral arrangement presented by the Natal's officers. The Natal was met off Nantuxet by a squadron of two United States battleships and four destroyers, and the funeral fleet lay off Sandy Hook last night.

A thick fog blanketed the bay and it was 11 o'clock before the procession got under way. The fog lifted and the sky cleared for a few minutes when they came to anchor off Ninety-Eighth street, but the clouds soon shut down again and a scale swept up the river that made the landing of the caisson a difficult task.

Guard of Honor Drenched. Bitterly cold from the battleships Florida and North Dakota were drenched with spray as they came ashore to form a guard of honor, and the little launch from the wharf pitched so badly that the ten petty officers acting as pallbearers had to steady the coffin for fear it would go overboard. On the river the guns of the Natal and of the Florida boomed a salute of nine-tenths guns.

The first civilian to board the Natal after she anchored was Ogden Mills, the late ambassador's brother-in-law. When the procession formed, Mr. Mills, with the late ambassador's son, Ogden Reid, and S. S. Hanks, his secretary, stood bareheaded in the artillery caisson with Chandler Hale, third assistant secretary of state, and Capt. T. M. Potts of the United States navy.

The body was escorted to the cathedral by a company of Marines. The ten petty officers from the United States battleships walked on either side of the caisson. There was no music and no display.

At the cathedral the caisson was entrusted to a guard of thirty men from the battleship Connecticut. In squads of fifteen on two-hour shifts these marines watched by the caisson during the night.

MAIL PACKAGES AT POSTOFFICE

Under Parcel Post, Merchandise Must Go According to the New Regulations.

With all the publicity given the parcel post, the patrons do not seem to comprehend the tremendous effect it has upon mailing merchandise. Packages after packages reach the local postoffice daily, bearing stamps and labels, and the law provides that only distinctive parcel post stamps can be used. The postoffice department has returned hundreds of packages, and the sender is unable to return because the sender failed to write a return address.

Another important change the initiation of the parcel post has brought about is the mailing of packages at the street boxes. Under the old regulations this was permitted, but under the parcel post such packages must be mailed at the postoffice or sub-postoffice stations. The carriers have found several packages piled on top of the street boxes and they are at a loss to know what to do. The postmaster has ordered that such packages must be accepted by the carriers under the parcel post regulations.

Despite the ignorance of some patrons, parcel post has done a remarkable business in Waco since it became effective. The business the first day was very light, because Wednesday was a holiday, being the first day of actual service. According to Postmaster W. H. Hoffmann, 363 packages, each, were accepted at the office Thursday. The stamps to send these packages cost over $23. On the same day 36 packages were received and delivered, averaging one and one-fourth pounds each.

Mr. Hoffmann says the reason why the outgoing business shows such an increase over the incoming business is due to the fact that Thursday was the first day of the service and packages mailed at a distance from Waco were not received the same day.

The department stores, wholesale houses and all retail merchants are patronizing the parcel post generously and the extra volume of business at the local postoffice is being dispensed with more readily and with a few more days' experience the force will soon be able to handle the extra business without delay.

Knights Templar Officers. The annual election and installation of officers of Waco Commandery No. 14 of the Knights Templar was held at the Masonic temple last night. The following officers were elected:

Dr. L. L. McClellan, state quarantine officer at Galveston for the past two years, eminent commander; H. E. Hepler, generalissimo; D. A. Saunders, captain general; A. C. Johnson, senior warden, and L. A. Brooks, junior warden.

The following officers were appointed and installed: E. C. Tabbs, standard bearer; J. T. Fitzpatrick, sword bearer; W. M. Schmauber, warden; J. F. Brinkerhoff, recorder; M. T. Bell, treasurer; B. A. Gurley, prelate, and Alva Bryan, sentinel.

WOULD "BUST" UNFIT OFFICERS

MAJOR GENERAL WOOD CITES NEEDS OF UNITED STATES ARMY.

URGES CANTEN RESTORATION

Concentration of Troops for Economic Purposes Advanced by Chief of Staff's Report.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Restoration of the army canteen and enactment of legislation for the elimination from the United States army of unfit officers are among the principal recommendations of Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff, in his annual report made public today.

General Wood likewise recommends the concentration of the army on strategic lines and in areas where it can be more economically maintained and would transfer all the personnel of the staff corps excepting engineers, medical officers and chaplains to the line, increasing accordingly the number of the general officers and line officers in the different grades.

The transfer of the personnel of the staff corps to the line in General Wood's opinion "will terminate the constant struggle between line and staff, a struggle which is as old as the army and one which promises to continue. There would be no interference with promotion, and most of the members of the present staff corps lose any of their present advantages. There will be more co-operation and greater efficiency."

Discussing means for the elimination of unfit officers, the general says: "The full efficiency of an organization of men cannot be secured without a system by which the merits of the individual shall have some effect upon their advancement."

System Lacking, Says General. "The army has long suffered from the lack of such a system," the general continues. "Up to the present, the promotion is entirely by seniority in each branch and there is no way under the law by which an officer, no matter what his merit, can be advanced a single number except by making him a general officer. Conservative opposition is, in most cases, looked for in the army, where there is a jealous fear of the effects of favoritism but this would disappear under the influence of a proposition to place the selections where they belong, in the hands of the service itself, which surely is worthy of a trust, by lodging it with boards of officers so that as not to be personally affected by their decisions and sworn to act in accordance with the best interests of the service."

Canteen Would Improve Health. "The great majority of the officers of the army," says General Wood, discussing the canteen question, "are of the opinion that the re-establishment of the canteen under proper supervision would tend to improve the health, discipline and efficiency of the service through diminishing intemperance and immorality. I concur in this opinion."

General Wood encounters an old difficulty in trying to solve the question of the fluctuation in the number of desertions from the army. The desertions numbered 3,401, an increase of 397 over the preceding year.

"It is probable," he observes, "that many young men enlisted last year with the expectation of field service, which was not gratified."

4 PERSONS KILLED IN WRECK

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 3.—Four persons are reported killed and a number injured on a New Orleans, Mobile and Chicago train wrecked near Merrill, Miss., this afternoon. A relief train has been sent out from Mobile and is expected in at 10 o'clock.

The four persons reported killed are Oscar Shepherd, news agent; the negro porter, both of Mobile; the engineer and a woman, names and residence undetermined.

More than a score of passengers including thirteen negroes are said to have been badly injured.

The wreck is said to have been due to a trestle falling beneath the weight of an unusually heavy engine.

To Complete Rusk Deal. Austin, Jan. 3.—H. A. O'Neal of Atlanta, Ga., county arrived today to close definitely with Governor Colquitt the trade for the lease of the state iron furnace at the Rusk penitentiary to Philadelphia capitalists.

It was indicated several days ago that this step would be taken. The option money has passed to the hands of the state and the iron ore people expect to begin operation at once.

STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE

Buildings Are Swept From Foundations—General Along Atlantic Coast—One Man Killed.

New York, Jan. 3.—The most destructive storm of the season swept along the Atlantic coast today causing great property loss. Simultaneously came reports of storms of equal violence in portions of the south and middle west and along a part of the Pacific coast. Wireless communication in all sections of the country was crippled. At times during the day as few as five wires were working between this city and Chicago, and all wires south of Atlanta were prostrated.

Damage caused to shipping on sea, lake and harbor cannot be estimated tonight. While the storm was heavy and general, only one death had been reported here up to a late hour, that of a Brooklyn man blown from a scaffold.

In this city rain early today was followed by a gale that reached a maximum velocity of eighty miles an hour, working havoc on land and water. From capsize small craft scores of persons were rescued in this harbor. An unidentified three-masted schooner was anchored tonight five miles off the Little Egg life saving station, flying distress signals. Reports from the station said she did not appear in immediate danger but the revenue cutter Seneca has been dispatched to her assistance.

WILSON HEARS OF ROGERS

Senator Owen Visits President-Elect to Talk of Proposed Appointment. Governor Free Today.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 3.—Senator Robert Owen of Oklahoma today presented to President-elect Wilson the name of Robert Rogers, an Oklahoma lawyer, for the post of secretary of the interior. When Senator Owen left the governor's office he declined to say whom he had talked about with Mr. Wilson. The president-elect later declared that Senator Owen had come to speak for Mr. Rogers.

Senator Owen dwelt upon the fact that Mr. Rogers has a general practice in which he has distinguished himself," said Mr. Wilson. He added that Mr. Rogers had been prominent in a progressive Democrat in Oklahoma.

Mr. Rogers was a classmate of Mr. Wilson's at the University of Virginia, but they haven't seen each other since, the governor said.

Reports that Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia was to confer with him concerning the appointment of a governor for the Panama canal zone were declared by Mr. Wilson to be without foundation.

The governor will be at Princeton tomorrow, but does not expect to see anybody. He intends to catch up with his correspondence and take a five-mile walk in the afternoon.

CASTRO IS AFTER FREEDOM

"Man of Destiny" Gets Writ of Habeas Corpus Through His Attorney. Action Surprises.

New York, Jan. 3.—Application for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Oipriano Castro from Ellis Island was made in the federal court this afternoon. The application was made by George Gordon Battle. The writ granted on Mr. Battle's contention that Castro is being held "without authority of law" and that he had been denied the right to consult with counsel while detained.

The action in Castro's behalf came as a great surprise, inasmuch as he had announced that he would voluntarily leave the country, having set his departure for tomorrow on the steamship America.

Judge Holt granted the writ but set no date for its return. Mr. Battle went immediately to Ellis Island for a conference with his client.

JEFF DAVIS' FUNERAL SUNDAY

Death of Senator Leaves Arkansas Politics Disturbed—Successor Choosing Plan Enigm.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 3.—The funeral of the late United States Senator Jeff Davis who died suddenly last night at his home in this city, will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

United States Senator James P. Clark, who is in Washington, wired today inquiring about the funeral arrangements. The political situation in Arkansas is chaotic. Governor Donaghy refuses to discuss it. Whether he will appoint a temporary senator or allow the legislature to choose, or if the body will decline to act without instructions from the voters through a primary. These are the points under discussion.

CONGRESSMAN KILLS SELF

Wm. Wedemeyer of Michigan Jumps From Boat—Body Is Not Recovered.

Colon, Jan. 3.—Confirmation was received here by wireless today of the report that Representative William Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor, Mich., had jumped overboard from the steamship Panama, on board of which he had left Colon in charge of two nurses.

He leaped from the deck of the vessel at 7:30 last evening. The alarm of "man overboard" was given and a boat was immediately lowered.

The crew searched the surface of the sea, the vicinity for forty minutes without finding any trace of Mr. Wedemeyer.

RIGGINS MAKES ONLY OFFER

IS THE OPINION OF COMMITTEE CONSIDERING THE HOTEL BONUS.

TO DRAW UP LEGAL CONTRACT

Committee is Named to Confer With Him—Communication Received From W. T. Watt.

With a tentative proposition from W. T. Watt, which provides that he will build a hotel according to plans to be agreed upon by him later, and with the Riggins proposition pending, the directors of the Waco Business Men's club and the Young Men's Business league, meeting jointly in executive session yesterday morning decided to confer with Mr. Riggins as to the character of contract he is willing to agree on.

When the two directorates met yesterday morning there were present the following:

Waco Business Men's club—E. W. Marshall, J. J. Powers, W. T. Herwick, R. F. Gribble, F. E. McLarty, L. M. Galt, F. L. Miller, R. T. Dennis, C. L. Sanger, J. R. Millam, Peyton Randle, T. P. Duncan, Geo. S. McGhee and E. F. Drake, secretary. Young Men's Business league—John F. Wright, president; L. A. Brooks, C. B. McCollum, Roy E. Lane, A. D. Adams, Will Lacy, Joe Sanger, E. F. Carroll, F. J. Trau, Isadore Friedlander, J. G. Wood, J. H. Dalton, W. V. Crawford and H. Hagedorn, secretary. Visitors—James M. Baker, R. S. Lazenby, H. H. Shear, Alfred Abel, Tom Padgett, Bart Moore, J. Scott Hill, C. A. Weathered, W. S. Duke, Dr. G. B. Foscoe.

Bidders—J. W. Riggins for himself, and O. H. Cross for W. T. Watt. Attorneys—Walter S. Baker for Mr. Riggins, and Ben G. Kendall for the joint committee.

Architects—George Burnett and Milton W. Scott, each submitting plans for Mr. Watt.

When the joint committee met there was a question how to proceed. The committee had taken a recess Thursday when it was in executive session. It meets after recess, and is in executive session? Shall it remain in executive session? This question was put to the assemblage. The vote was in executive session. Then it was decided to ask if there were other bidders, and the following was presented: Sam Ringer, E. Rotan, T. J. Primm and E. R. Nash were appointed to arrange to guarantee the bonus.

The same committee that conferred with Mr. Riggins Thursday was appointed to agree on a legal contract with Mr. Riggins.

Gentlemen: If you will collect and turn over to me in the manner provided the $50,000 bonus, I will agree to erect, on what is known as the Hotel Royal property, on the corner of Fifth and Franklin streets, a modern fireproof hotel, to be not less than five or more than eight stories, including the basement, and to contain not less than 200 rooms, exclusive of the first floor. Said building to be similar in appearance to one of the drawings herewith presented, to be decided by me within a reasonable time. When I shall have decided on one of the designs referred to, I agree to employ a competent architect to prepare plans and specifications in accordance with said design so selected, and that when said plans and specifications are prepared and approved by me, I agree to enter into a $50,000 bond, obligating myself to construct said hotel according to said plans and specifications. Yours very respectfully, W. T. WATT.

After this was read Milton L. Scott and his associate, Dudley S. Green, came forward with the plans of a hotel building which they explained, stating that it was a plan submitted to Mr. Watt.

When they had finished George H. Burnett presented plans for a hotel which he had submitted to Mr. Watt, and explained the construction in detail.

O. H. Cross for Mr. Watt stated that Mr. Watt would build the hotel if he is awarded the bonus, but that no plan has yet been selected.

After this there was a discussion as to whether the committee should go into executive session.

C. B. McCollum moved that the committee go into executive session. W. V. Crawford seconded this.

This was amended that the committee go into executive session, but allow those who wanted to remain to do so. It carried in this shape, but before the committee could proceed Isadore Friedlander made a point of order that an executive session meant that the visitors be excluded, and a motion was then made for a real executive session, and this carried.

When the committee went into executive session, the newspaper men being allowed to remain, the committee appointed at the meeting the day before reported in substance as follows:

That Mr. Riggins will accept a guarantee for the bonus; that he will agree to put up a $50,000 certified check that he will build the hotel; that he will notify the committee ten days before any part of the bonus is due him.

Some of those present were of the opinion that Mr. Watt had made no proposition; that the question had narrowed down to a proposition only from Mr. Riggins, with two architects fighting in competition for a building for Mr. Watt. The consensus of opinion was that Mr. Watt has made no proposition.

L. M. Galt then presented in writing his reasons for favoring the Riggins proposition. He said that if the bonus is awarded to the owners of the hotel property at either Fourth and Franklin or Fifth and Franklin that it would mean 200 additional rooms in Waco; that it would result in either the Royal hotel or the Metropole hotel being torn down and a new hotel built instead; that it would not give the people the additional hotel facilities they want, and he was opposed to any such proposition, therefore he favored the Riggins proposition.

J. R. Millam moved that a committee be appointed to agree with Mr. Riggins on a legal and binding contract. Peyton Randle moved that a similar committee be appointed to confer with Mr. Watt. The Randle motion was tabled and the Millam motion was adopted. Sam Ringer, E. Rotan, T. J. Primm and E. R. Nash were appointed to arrange to guarantee the bonus. The same committee that conferred with Mr. Riggins Thursday was appointed to agree on a legal contract with Mr. Riggins.

GIRL, 9, BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

Child Left Unconscious by Wayside. Dies Soon After Found—Passer In Search.

Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 3.—Nine-year-old Ella Brown died at 6 o'clock tonight from injuries received at the hands of an unknown assailant a quarter of a mile from her home at the little oil town of Kiefer. The girl was found at 4 o'clock in an unconscious condition. She had been brutally assaulted and beaten into insensibility with a rock and had lain in the open all Thursday night while nearly every resident of the town was searching for her.

Two tramps were placed in jail tonight as suspects and over 100 men have surrounded the place, waiting to hear the result of the search that was started from the scene of the crime by a big posse and bloodhounds.

The posse at 5 o'clock was thirteen miles northeast of Kiefer and the dogs were eagerly following the trail. The Brown girl was the daughter of George Brown, a well known oil man.

Greatest Event of the Year for Men

Clearance Men's and Boys' Clothing Begins This Morning at 8 O'clock

Our inventory is completed. Everything is now in readiness for the Annual Winter Clearance. And the most noticeable thing about this entire sale is that all the stocks are new. Nothing old and shelf-worn to be closed out. With our "Lesser Profit Plan" that we inaugurated at the beginning of the season, which made our Clothing and Furnishings 15 to 25 per cent. lower than usually asked, now comes this big cut in prices. And this Great Clearance now affords unusual opportunities to save. It is an event for which the men of Waco have been waiting. The high character of the goods themselves needs no explanation or extended comment. Briefly we take up the prices.

ALL MEN'S SUITS REDUCED

Men who are "Up" on Clothing know that Benjamin, L. System, Michaels-Stern and Peck Suits and R. & W. Overcoats have no superiors. And every garment presented in this Clearance is new—right up to the top notch in tailoring and style. We are making these prices, not because the Suits are worth less than in the beginning of the season, but because it is our policy to close out all goods from one season to the other. A look at the Suits themselves is worth more than a volume in description. Note these low prices carefully.

$15.00 Suits	- - $11.15	$25.00 Suits	- - $18.45
$18.00 Suits	- - $13.45	$27.50 Suits	- - $20.45

THE EUTERPEANS MEET

AT THE LIBRARY TODAY
Owing to the illness of Mr. Glover, Mrs. T. O. Glover, who was to have been hostess to the Euterpean club has been compelled to recall her invitation. Instead, the club will meet at the library. An excellent program is to be given. The hour for beginning is 2 o'clock.

SOCIETY'S ENGAGEMENTS

FOR THIS SATURDAY
This afternoon the Euterpean club is in regular session at the library. Mrs. Harvey McRichey is entertaining at bridge complimentary to Miss Alice Lee Boynton as the bride of the coming week.

The children have morning story hour at the library.

A. C. AUSTERMUEHLE, JR.

A DINNER HONOREE
Among the strictly stag gatherings one is reported full of good cheer and the sentiment of friendship. A. C. Austermuehle, Jr. was dinner honoree in recognition of his birthday. The feast itself was sufficient for the most exacting company, while the talent of the guests gave music in abundance. Mr. Austermuehle accepted his courtesy in an appreciative manner. For the dinner he was with Theodore Ray, Dean Ellis, Barton King, Ben S. Schimmelpfennig, Early Busby, and Luther Stewart.

RECEPTION IN DALLAS

HAS INTEREST HERE
Over in Dallas one of the brilliant new year happenings was the at home of Mr. and Mrs. Liebman. This was to formally receive congratulations upon the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsa Liebman, to Joe Sanger of this city. The home was elaborately decorated, and without invitation, more than two hundred paid their respects to this prominent event. Accompanying Mr. Sanger from here were Mrs. Lehman Sanger, Mrs. D. E. Hirschfeld and her guest, Miss Traxler from Little Rock, and Bert Sanger. They were joined by Mrs. Alice Mayer, the aunt of Mr. Sanger, from New York city. The party from Waco is again at home. Miss Liebman will be down within the next few days for a visit to Mrs. Alex Sanger on West Washington. Congratulations will again be paid, and these from the groom to be's family and friends.

EDWIN LIGON HAS GUESTS

FOR A WATCH PARTY
Many friends gathered at the home of Edwin Ligon on Franklin street to enjoy an evening in watch for the arrival of the new year. The home was decorated appropriately to the holiday. Many games whittled the hours. In addition to the new year watch those gathered honored the young host's fifteenth birthday. The cake with its tell tale candles was brought forward and probed for its mysteries. Brownie Warren found the dime, Arthur Shredie the button, Chilton Ratcliffe the thimble, and Miss Lucile Evans the ring. This popular young host is now returning to school at Brownwood.

MRS. R. G. WENDLAND

HAS HER BRIDGE CLUB
In her private rooms at the Metropolitan, Mrs. R. G. Wendland, a member of the Colonial Bridge club, entertained for the regular Thursday game. Several additional guests were called in among them being Miss Mamie Simms, from Dallas. This was rather a reunion after holiday separation. The prizes were taken by Mrs. Frank Trust and Mrs. Lon Sparks. A special guest favor was a corsage cluster of Richmond buds, and they were won by Mrs. W. P. Killingsworth. One surprise feature in the award was the presentation to the president of the club, Mrs. E. P. Drake, of a framed picture with the new year compliments of the club through their thoughtful hostess who had provided the picture from an artist in the oil home city of Mrs. Drake. The luncheon feature was in two courses, a bouillabaisse with turkey sandwich followed by a cup of frozen egg nog, each with dainty accompaniment. Those who played with the club members were Miss Simms, Mrs. Killingsworth, Mrs. Baker Hoskins, Mrs. Zin Hunt and Mrs. G. G. Foscoe.

THE MAIDS AND MATRONS

WITH THEIR PRESIDENT
In entertaining her card club who have made her their leader for this season, Mrs. Shel Sparks overstepped the regular club attendance and afforded a beautiful holiday card matinee. The home was dressed for the Christmas season, and for a freshening as well as fragrance, these were treated to vases of crimson carnations in abundance. Other touches of taste for which Mrs. Sparks is proverbial, were given, and three extra tables called into the game. The scores were flower embossed, a different blossom for each table. The season gave the idea for the refreshments, cake with punch, and the reception nut. After the unusually spirited tilt at five hundred, the club game, the prizes were much admired and then presented to the Mesdames William Carroll, George Zizina and Cullen Cooper. The Mesdames Whitworth were assisting hostesses. The present, other than the club members and the neighbors who made a late call were Mesdames William Johnson, Cullen Cooper, Langhorne of Virginia, Alfred Edwards, J. S. Hill, Charles Hamilton, George Zizina, Peyton Randle, Walter Clegg, S. E. Stratton, Chester Story, Harvey McRichey, Frank Wheeler, Kelly and C. N. Smith with the Misses Riggins.

MRS. LINCOLN COMPLIMENTS

HER HOUSEHOLD GUESTS
In special emphasis to the holiday visits of Mrs. Kimball of Waterloo, Iowa, and her sister, Mrs. Edna Bartlett from New York, Mrs. W. J. Lincoln was hostess to a bridge matinee on Thursday afternoon. The home decorations for Christmas were removed to make place for special touches of greens and berries. These were elaborately used and vases of large Zizina. The reminder of the departing season came in the immense holly wreath which encircled the base of the bowl from which an egg nog was served. The entire lower floor of this attractive home was used for the card game. Mrs. Ludwell Williams as assistant hostess served the egg nog cup, while other dainties were offered with it. The game favors varied to a special trophy for the low score. This was a buffet bread crumb set and it was won by Mrs. W. H. Penland. The leading score was made by Mrs. Hugh McLendon and proved one of the new popular art corsage bunches. The consolation gave one of the guests of honor, Mrs. Kimball, a pretty vase of deposit silver. While many individually had met Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Bartlett since their arrival, it remained for this more elaborate courtesy to come from Mrs. Lincoln and to afford an entire afternoon with the affable honorees. These guests were,

Consolidation Notice.

This is to notify the public that the real estate firms of Clifford L. McDonald of 614 Amicable Bldg. and The R. L. Penland Realty Company, formerly of No. 111 South Fifth street, have consolidated under the firm name of McDonald-Penland Co., and will continue the real estate and loan business at 614 Amicable Building. We use this method of thanking you for your past patronage and earnestly solicit a liberal portion of your future business. All business entrusted to us will be given prompt attention.

CLIFFORD L. McDONALD.

R. L. PENLAND.

I wish to announce that Louis Sternkorb's business will continue the same, in Bankers alley, under the management of my son, Sam Sternkorb. He being reared in the business, is thoroughly competent and fully equipped to handle all kinds of signs. We wish to thank our old patrons and solicit all new ones. Respectfully,

1-5 MRS. LOUIS STERNKORB.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY.

Your next year will be uneventful but rather fortunate. The signs of speculation and of games of chance are set against you, but steadier methods will bring results. Those born today will have ability and energy. If misdirected, will cause much trouble. They should look from many different viewpoints before they act on important matters. They will have great power for good, if well trained.

Notice.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First State Bank and Trust company of Waco will be held on Wednesday, January 8, 1913, at the offices of the bank, for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may come before it. "SOCIAL UNREST."

Mr. Bailey's "vale" address, closing a long and lively career in the nation's councils will, we think, receive most attention because of its somewhat striking blaming of the press for the "social unrest" prevalent
through the nation, and for his comment concerning the president-elect.

We are not taking up cudgels in defense of Mr. Hearst, his methods;
or to belabor Mr. Hearst or to hit harder where Mr. Bailey hit. We do not agree with the statement Mr.
Bailey offered, "that the present great popular unrest had its beginning in what was intended as more idle gossips," for we believe the honest newspaper is warranted in printing accounts of what the senator terms merely "something to write." Its gossip of "millionaire senators," just as Mr. Bailey concludes, is in response to an "insistent demand" and wholly a legitimate news feature, just as the lighter side, the social side, the personal side of any public situation is legitimate news. The personal doings of so prominent an individual as a federal senator is of keen public interest, as the Texan well knows. We are willing to venture, however, that Mr. Bailey could not trace to the columns of an honest, intelligent journal
the inspiration of the Washington
man's remark that the senate office building was a place where "those old fellows fix up their jobs, drink their champagne and get drunk as jords."

The American newspaper is not responsible for social unrest. It is responsible, in great degree, for social reforms that are worthwhile. It never fostered enmity between capital and labor, employer and employee. It reported strikes, lock-outs, grave crises
in labor organizations, of course, as matters of moment. Editorially, it protested against crime and violence
in any cause, the destruction of property and the preaching of social revolution. Social unrest goes far deeper than newspaper gossip of public men and rich men's ways. Poverty always will resent affluence—there will always be a survival of the fittest. Wealth-gathering always will be heartless. It is human nature.
These are trite platitudes, most of them axiomatic—but go to show that the cause is deep, deeper than any artificial treatment of conditions can describe. None denies the social system is honeycombed with vice and injustice.

With the senator's declaration that an appeal to ignorance and prejudice
is "the curse of the time" we heartily agree; we endorse his denunciation of arraying rich against poor. "All the rich are not rascals, nor all the poor patriots." Of course. With him, we would wipe out yellowness and the ways of hate in journalism. It is vicious, dishonest, dangerous. But it is not the cause of social unrest, nor even responsible for any element of that unrest save as it fans the flame
of strife between laborer and hirer.
We hope Mr. Bailey's zeal for American institutions will lead others to discriminate rather carefully between the expression of honest convictions
and the printing of actual happenings, and the gratification of ignorant passion by self-seekers and unscrupulous politicians, for the American press is quite as splendid an institution as the American senate and quite as earnest for the liberties for which the eminent Texan orates.

New York's policemen shouldn't believe all they read in the papers.—
New York Sun.

New York's papers shouldn't believe all that's told them by police-

STREET MENACES.

The attention of the chief of police and of his department's every street
officer is again called to the menaces
and public nuisances of the city of Waco—the reckless, careless drivers of motor cars and motorcycles and some few drivers of larger vehicles drawn by horses. The Waco News asks that the traffic ordinance be rigidly and unceasingly enforced
along this line. There is no excuse for laxity in its enforcement at any time, especially during those hours
of the day when the streets are busiest, noon and early evening. At such intersections as Fifth and Austin,
Fourth and Austin and the corresponding intersections of Franklin street, and at the postoffice crossings,
there is altogether too much disregard for the safety of the pedestrian.
This is particularly true of the actions
and ignorance of some of the boys
and younger men who are driving cars. Observance of traffic rules should be insisted on, the main-traveled streets should not be made traps

for the driver who insists on speeding; and it is hoped that this State sometime will realize the efficacy of a jail sentence to stop reckless driving. Above all, this request to the police department concerns the drivers of motorcycles, which are hardest of all to dodge. There should be no necessity of dodging and the public-spirited members of such organizations as the auto club should do their part to discourage these demonstrations of recklessness and selfishness. Pedestrians comprise all but a few hundred of this city's citizenship.
Theirs is a right, not a privilege.

Eggs should be parcel-posted as first-class matter, registered.

CONSIDERATIONS OF SENSE.

Using their own expression: "Could any fair minded man blame you for protecting your own interests?" we commend to careful reading and thought the addresses now being published widely by the association of general managers of Texas railroads
in behalf of a more liberal attitude of this State toward the roads—an attitude commonly liberal to corporation and contributor. At no time in this nation's history has the consideration of the status of the railroad, its relation to the community, its interdependence with the community on the State's development, been so plainly forced on the attention of citizen and law-maker. The railroads, and a strong representation of public men
and men prominent in every business and profession the State over,
will appeal to the coming legislature
in the necessity for such measures as the modernizing, by amendment,
of the stock and bond law, to meet present exigencies and to permit railroads so to finance and protect their operation that more adequate service can be given—the needs of this day considered, rather than conditions obtaining twenty years ago. The general managers speak frankly, they call
a spade a spade and offer no specious argument for the augmenting of their revenues. In specific terms they stress the all-important factor of the cost of operation, which is the cost to the shipper and the passenger—to every user of the road other than employee. Their illustration of the simplicity of the contract between state and company is homely, effective and bears an honesty that cannot be con-troverted by the threadbare, stock argument of "manipulation, inflation of values" and like demagogic nonsense
that hurts the State and the people.
It is proved, in this day, beyond all dispute that indifference to the welfare of the railroad means rotten service, stagnation of trade or both, and the people will get exactly what they pay for and permit.

"Large portions of the operating expenses are prescribed by law," say
the managers, "and, of course, when the legislature puts an expense upon
the railroads the people must pay it,
whether necessary or unnecessary.
Just or unjust, and we are powerless
to prevent it. . . . In spite of all we can do to prevent it, the expenses of operating railroads are increasing more than the revenue, and unless these expenses are arrested an increase in freight rates will be the result."

The condition exists. There must be more liberal (above all, more expert) treatment of the roads by public officials concerned, by the people and by the law-makers. We have the right to demand proper freight and passenger service, but we must also expect to pay for it and we must demand the roads be so ordered by the State that proper service is possible—freight rates must be fair to public and to roads, assuring reasonably fair return on the investment and thoroughly reasonable treatment
of the investors who, at the last, are the people needing the roads and the State which the roads do most to develop.

In every part of the nation the press is demanding a new day in the relation of the railroads to the people and to progress. A certain majority of the press of Texas is asking the legislature to act wisely, carefully and without bias, to do its best for this State and its railroads—the State
first. Interested? Of course it is!
Financially, patriotically and honestly. It wants the roads to prosper that the State may prosper; Texas needs
all the trackage it can get, and territorial development by steel does not follow year after year of deficit in revenue and increase in operation. It realizes that a prosperous railroad means a prosperous land, but that Texas' prosperity must be directed much more wisely if the people and public service interests are to benefit
as the State's resources warrant.

Facts, figures, needs and conditions
must be studied by the session that is to convene in Austin ten days
hence. Politics and personal bias must go by the board. There must be considerations of sense and action prompted by public concern. Texas'
railroads are in need of modern legislative surgery to remove ancient ills.

If Missouri is really so hungry for a State song, why not try "Show Me How to Go, O Lord."

Texas Viewpoints

Demanding Hotels.

Bay City Tribune: Of course, there are many things which would prove of more material benefit than a first-class hotel, but there is nothing that would tend to the city or have a better effect on the tone of refinement and hospitality to the people who visit here, either for business or pleasure. The hotel situation is no joke; it's a serious one and there should be no time lost in securing this much-needed "reform."

Every town and city in South Texas
ought to strive to secure adequate hotel facilities. When this part of the State shall be equipped with good hotels the tide of tourist travel that is already setting this way will become more pronounced and development of the country will be yet more rapid.
Good hotels are a sign of progressive communities and indicate pleasant
conditions generally. — State Press, Galveston News.

It is a healthy sign that at the beginning of the new year Texas cities
generally, and especially communities of upwards of 10,000 inhabitants, are renewing their clamor for proper hotel accommodations. These have come to be almost the most important internal development of every small city
next to providing for water supply,
sewage and lighting, and next to accessibility by railroad a community is judged by its ability to house the stranger within its gates. The demand for hotels is the gauge of the growth of trade, the city's reputation as an attractive place for conventions and celebrations, its suitability as a place of residence; it is the dividing stage and the distinguishing mark between the community that has the go-ahead spirit and that which stands still. And the fact that every city in the state ranking just below the four that lead in point of population is demanding more suitable facilities for travelers, tourists and delegates
means much in the past year's record of progress and prosperity. Let Waco improve its present opportunity speedily.

Rank Deception.

The Paragraphers Union is going to sue the janitor for libel. He hasn't brought any water to the editorial department since Christmas day.—Austin Statesman.

Three months ago the Paragraphers
Union could have put across a bluff
of that sort and the State would have nodded approval of his principles of abstinence and his solicitude for soap. But since the Independent Paragraphers advented, and became the entering wedge between the Union's deception and an over-credulous
public, the above can evoke nothing better than a gibe of mistrust. The Union's janitor knows too well that a water cooler in the Union's council room is as superfluous as a safety razor for a Mormon patriarch, and a cake of "99.40 per cent pure" would be used merely to expedite the initial exit of the plug that keeps the contents of long-necked containers from spilling. The Union's declaration of intention to sue the servitor won't wash, facially—or otherwise be swallowed by those whose suspicions
the Independent Paragraphers has aroused.

Merry Manuel.

Ex-King Manuel of Portugal is going to run a hotel. If he makes a good landlord his life may yet be of some use.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Having at one time been run out of a hotel because of his gab and his gaby, we believe, Mannie doubtless is going in for a bit of poetic justice.
It will be interesting to read of those who resort to his resort and his enterprise, therefore, deserves a New York Journal subsidy.

Historical Inquiry.

Uncle Sam is now without an ambassador to England and will be until President Wilson goes into office.
As President Taft has announced that he will not appoint any one to the vacancy caused by the death of Whitelaw Reid. That is the first time in the history of the nation that we have not been represented at the Court of St. James.—Mexico News.

Is that last statement strictly accurate, historically? Who represented us at the Court of St. James on July 5, 1776?

Too Refined.

Dodge this one from the paragraph-ers' union: By their canned fruits
we shall know the good housewife.—
Palestine Herald.

The Herald is an artful flatterer.

To imply that the Paragraphers' Union knows anything at all about canned fruits and good housewives is to give the public to understand that there are "genteel" boarding houses
in Austin, wherein the Union is subsided. Now had the Herald remarked
"by their dried fruits" or "by their pickled plums," he would have taken the Union's measure and hit at his habitat.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

In accordance with the terms of an ordinance duly passed by the board of commissioners of the city of Waco,
on the 31st day of December, 1912,
I, J. H. Mackey, mayor of the city of Waco, do hereby give notice that on the 8th day of February, 1913, an election will be held in said city to be voted on by the qualified voters who are property tax payers of said city,
to determine whether or not the said
city shall issue its bonds in the sum of $120,000 payable in thirty years and bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually as it accrues, said bonds to be of the denomination of $1000 each, dated January 1, 1913, for the erection of public school buildings.

There shall further be submitted at said election to the qualified voters
who are property tax payers of said
city, the further proposition whether or not the city of Waco shall issue
its bonds in the sum of $100,000 payable in thirty years, and bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually as it ac-crues, said bonds to be of the denomination of $1000 each, and to be dated January 1, 1913, for the purpose of improving and maintaining streets,
alleys and avenues.

Those desiring to vote for the issue-
ance of said bonds for the erection of public school buildings shall have printed or written on the ballot voted
by them, "For the issuance of Bonds
for the Purpose of Public School Buildings." Those desiring to vote for the issuance of said bonds for the improvement and maintenance of streets,
alleys and avenues, shall have printed
or written on the ballot voted by them,
"Against the issuance of Bonds for the Purpose of Improving and Maintaining Streets, Alleys and Avenues."

Those desiring to vote for the issue-
ance of bonds for the construction and
repair of sanitary sewers, shall have
printed or written on the ballot voted
by them, "For the issuance of Bonds
for the Purpose of Sanitary Sewer Bonds," and those desiring to vote
against the issuance of said bonds for
the purpose of improving and maintaining streets, alleys and avenues, shall
have printed or written on the ballot
voted by them, "Against the issuance
of Bonds for the Purpose of Improving
and Maintaining Streets, Alleys and Avenues."

Those desiring to vote for the issue-
ance of bonds for the construction and
repair of sanitary sewers, shall have
printed or written on the ballot voted
by them, "For the issuance of Bonds
for the Purpose of Sanitary Sewer
Bonds," and those desiring to vote
against the issuance of said bonds for
the purpose of improving and maintaining streets, alleys and avenues, shall
have printed or written on the ballot
voted by them, "Against the issuance
of Bonds for the Purpose of Improving
and Maintaining Streets, Alleys and Avenues."

Said election to be held at the following places, to-wit:

In the First ward at the city hall;
R. P. Sturgis, presiding officer.
In the Second ward, at West End
fire station; S. H. Clayton, presiding officer.
In the Third ward, at 223 South Eighth street; M. H. Standifer, presiding officer.

In the Fourth ward, at Fourth and Franklin streets; Thomas C. Smith, presiding officer.
In the Fifth ward, at East Waco fire station; R. G. Wright, presiding officer.

In the Sixth ward, at North End fire station; A. W. Seales, presiding officer.

In testimony, I hereunto sign my name officially and cause the same to be attested by the signature of the city secretary of the city of Waco,
with the seal attached, this 1st day
of January, A. D. 1913.

J. H. MACKEY,
Mayor of the City of Waco.
Attest: JOHN C. DAVIS,
City Secretary, City of Waco.

FOR STREET CAR EXTENSIONS

Commission Requires the Traction Company to Act Under the Franchise Granted.

A tentative ordinance covering a number of proposed changes in trackage in the city by the Southern Traction company, and embodying amendments to the company's franchise, was considered by the city commission yesterday morning and several changes in the original were ordered.

The ordinance as read provided that the company might continue on Speight street to the corner of Twelfth, going either south along Twelfth to the city limits or west along Speight to the city limits. The time limit was so set that if work is not begun within a time not yet specified, the company would be barred from proceeding along either line.
It was further provided by the commission that rails not lighter than 70
pounds each be laid as far as Eighth street on Speight; that not less than 50-pound rails be used from this point to the corner of Speight and Twelfth streets, and that not lighter than 50-pound rails be used along the line to be built south or west of this point.

GATE ORDINANCE GOES OVER

Action is Deferred a Week to Let Exports Look into its Various Provisions.

Third reading of the ordinance
which prescribes the erection of mechanically operated safety gates at downtown crossings by the Cotton Belt and Katy railroads was postponed yesterday until the meeting of the city commission Friday, January 10, to give the roads more time to look into the matter and offer suggestions or criticisms to the commission.

Judge W. E. Spell, representing the
M. & T. railroad, appeared before the commission yesterday morning
and announced that his railroad wished to do everything possible to avoid accidents along its line, and to comply with the ordinance being prepared by the commission. He suggested, however, that he be given an opportunity to send a copy of the proposed ordinance to experts of the operating department of his road for criticism.

Attorney Pat M. Neff appeared as the bearer of a letter from the Southwestern Gate company, written to him
and asking that he have the time limit for installation of the gates extended from January 31 for 30 days.
The letter stated that the firm had orders for twenty-six electric gates
from the M. & T. railroad company and that the gates being of a special character, the company would be unable to complete the order and deliver the gates before the latter part of January.

Mr. Neff was informed by Mayor Mackey that no time had yet been fixed by the commission as to when the gates must be in operation, and Mr. Neff was authorized to assure the gate company that the commission would not be unreasonable as to the time, provided it was shown that al-possible speed was being exercised to install the apparatus.

Judge Spell said that General Manager Webb of the M. & T. had told him several days ago that the company had expended $15,000 for electric gates for the street crossings
in Waco. The order for the equipment was placed some sixty days ago,
before the city began preparation of an ordinance to compel the roads to put in the safeties.

Commissioner Gorman said that the city wished to give the road time to put their East Waco yards in condition, but that the commission was extremely anxious to have switching
on the west side of the Brazos discontinued and crossings blocked by long freight trains when the crew is awaiting orders. He said that under the new ordinance, provision would be made for the handling of cars to the docks of consignees, however.

Commissioner Standifer said that no freight trains should be broken up on the west side of the Brazos.
Mr. Spell assured the commission that everything the road could do to comply with the desire of the commission in this respect would be done.

TIME TO PAY YOUR POLL TAX

Less Than 2000 Have the Receipt.
Collector is Afraid of a Final Rush.

Less than one-eighth of the poll
taxes which will be paid by January 31, have as yet been received by Tax Collector Dave Davis. Up to yesterday afternoon the total number paid, less the exemptions, was 1754. There were more than 10,000 paid, including the exemptions, last year.

The force in the tax collector's office, although busy now, stands in fear that the tax payers will wait until January 31 to come in with their taxes, and on that day the probability is that the rush will be so great that the business cannot be handled.

Mr. Davis is anxious that from now on the men living in the country take
the first chance which affords them
to settle their accounts at the courthouse when they are in town. Residents of the city are urged to "drop in" while business is comparatively

NO COMMISSION; NO FEES

County Officials Cannot Collect Unless They Qualify Under Form Prescribed by Law.

That probably a dozen newly-elected county officials are in danger of working for the county, "free gratis for nothing," in view of the fact that they have not yet filed with the secretary of state the proper certificate showing that they have duly qualified, receiving in return their commissions, was the information gathered at the courthouse yesterday afternoon.

As a rule the newly-elected officials
each turn one dollar over to the county clerk, which is sent to the secretary of state at Austin, together with the clerk's statement that the officials have duly qualified. The dollar pays for the commission which is sent back by the secretary of state.
There are at least a dozen county
and precinct officials who have not yet paid in their dollars. Unless this is done, they cannot get their commissions. Unless they get their commissions, the county auditor is barred by law from paying them any "fee or perk" or any sum or sums of money
as fees of office, under article 289 of the revised statutes.

Auditor Lockwood is anxious that no complications arise, and that all of the officials may be able to collect their fees of office. John W. Bos-ker, county clerk, said yesterday that he would be glad to receive the necessary dollar from each of the officials and forward them to Austin for their commissions.

Freight Facilities at St. Louis Are Increased by Modern Building.

The new Florida street freight terminal of the Cotton Belt in St. Louis occupies three city blocks and lies between First and Lewis streets and Florida and Dickson streets. It is eight hundred and seventy-four feet long and two hundred and seventy-four feet wide. The main line tracks
of the St. Louis Merchants Bridge Terminal Railway Co. are on First street to the west of the property and the tracks of the St. Louis Transfer railway (Wiggins Ferry Co.) are on Lewis street to the east.

The principal feature of the terminal area: A completely fireproof
freight house seven hundred and fifty-one feet long, thirty feet wide and five stories high, with a platform on the track side ten feet wide.
Steel rolling doors are provided on the entire front of the building, and a twenty-foot concrete canopy is on each side. At short intervals along the middle of the building, platform scales are set in the floor. The driveway is paved with brick.

The building is of steel frame construction, with concrete fire-proofing around the columns and beams. And reinforced concrete walls and floor and roof slabs. The floors are designed for a load of five hundred pounds per square foot; the panels
between beam centers being thirteen feet six inches. The four upper stories are intended for warehouse purposes
and are served by four electric elevators.

Each floor is divided into compartments about one hundred feet long by division walls having openings twelve feet wide provided with rolling steel doors with automatic fire latch. The

NEW TIME CARD FOR THE KATY

IS TO BE EFFECTIVE NEXT SUNDAY, SO THE ORDERS DIRECT.

CHANGE ENGINES AT BELLMEAD

Three Northbound Trains Are Affected by the New Schedule—Special Trains Move Katy Freight.

The new time card adopted by the Missouri, Kansas & Texas company on account of the changes made with the completion of the Bellmead terminal at East Waco, is in the hands of Division Superintendent A. A. Matthews in the J. B. Behn building, to be distributed among the employees. It becomes effective Sunday.

According to the new time card, all passenger trains will change engines at the Bellmead terminal and some of the previous schedules are affected by the new time card.

The southbound limited, which now arrives at 1 p. m. will arrive five minutes sooner; the daily passenger train, No. 7, arriving now at 11:40 p. m., will arrive twenty minutes sooner; the southbound flyer is not changed; the southbound passenger train No. 3, known as the morning train from Dallas, is due in Waco at 11:15 p. m.

Instead of 12:35 p. m. No other southbound trains are changed.

Only three of the northbound passenger trains are affected. Passenger train No. 4, leaving here at 2:10 p. m., will leave at 2:30 p. m.; passenger train No. 8, leaving Waco at 4:10 a. m., will leave at 4:30 a. m.; the limited, reaching Waco at 3:50 p. m., and leaving five minutes later, will arrive and depart ten minutes later.

The Katy has way freight trains and fast freight trains due in and out of Waco daily, one at night and one in the morning; however, the Katy transports most of its freight by special trains made up to move freight when the business reaches such a point that it is necessary to handle the freight under this system. Waco is a large transfer point for the Katy, and it is essential, the railroad men say, to operate special trains often to take care of the vast volume of business. Local freight also is carried on the specials.

RAILROAD TO FREDERICKSBURG.

Charter is Filed for the Organization of a Company.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 3.—The attorney general approved and the secretary of state today filed the charter of the San Antonio, Fredericksburg and Northern railway, capital stock $30,000. R. A. Love of Kansas City, who has promoted the road and who holds 289 shares of the 300 shares of the stock in the company, announced that all stock had been sold and work was in progress on the road.

The company proposes to build a line of railroad beginning at a point on the San Antonio & Aransas Pass railroad, Kerrville branch, about four miles northwest of the town of Waring in Kendall county, and from there in a northerly direction through the counties of Kendall and Gillespie into the town of Fredericksburg in the county of Gillespie, a distance of approximately twenty-five miles.

The principal place of business after the construction of the road is to be located in Fredericksburg. But the construction offices of the company are to be located in San Antonio. The first board of directors is to consist of the following: R. A. Love, Foster Crane, M. H. Trice, R. L. Cunningham, J. H. Halle, F. F. Ludolph and George D. Campbell.

The incorporators are: R. A. Love, Foster Crane, M. H. Trice, R. L. Cunningham, F. F. Ludolph, J. H. Halle, R. W. Stephens, W. W. Collier, George D. Campbell, Frank R. Richards, H. N. Jones and H. M. Abernathy.

Waco is Complainant.

A case pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission in which the Waco freight bureau is one of the applicants associated with freight bureaus of Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma to have the commission set aside classification No. 51 to cancel classification No. 50, has been postponed to February 14.

The new classification was made December 30, 1911, to become effective February 15, 1912. It was found by shippers west of the Mississippi river that 2500 or more changes were made and in many instances it had the effect of increasing the minimum weight; however, rule No. 10 was the most objectionable, giving shippers the privilege of shipping commodities, articles and all sorts of wares in the same car, resulting in benefit to the large mail order houses in Chicago, Kansas City and other cities.

The Waco freight bureau was one of the first complainants and it has pushed its claim that the classification is unjust and unreasonable through the efforts of Secretary and Traffic Manager J. C. Dillard.

For a Hardware Rate.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 3.—In behalf of three applicants pending before the railroad commission for hearings relative to tariff changes on certain hardware articles, R. F. Bell of the Texas Hardware Dealers' association appeared today before Commissioner Earle Mayfield. Although pending for some time these applications have never been scheduled for a hearing.

The revisions in question are: For a revision of rate on screws, giving a carload rating; to add lag screws to iron articles; that is, taking them out of class rates and placing them in a commodity schedule; to readjust the vehicle and agricultural implement forgings.

Local News Notes

Commissioner Gorman reported to the city commission yesterday that the sewer along North Twentieth street is now almost on a level with the street, and that to properly complete the system it would be necessary to make improvements. He was empowered to act by the commission, using his permanent sewer force for the work. Mr. Gorman further stated that the sewer gang is hard at work in the Bell's Hill and old T. C. U. section, running out laterals in places where the buildings justify the work. It was shown where this work can be done 15 per cent cheaper through using the city gang, and that the work in practically all cases is better done than through letting it out under contract.

The Richelieu cafe, on Austin avenue near Sixth, owned by George Costas, stated yesterday that the chickens which were condemned by the city chemist Thursday were not the property of that cafe.

A horse owned by Joe Brightwell that was stolen from the city hall square late Monday afternoon was found yesterday morning by Constable Leslie Stergall near Abbott. The saddle had been taken off the animal and the horse released. No arrest has as yet been made.

A building permit yesterday was issued by the city secretary to the Magnolia Petroleum company to build a $1200 addition to its warehouse on the Texas Central railway tracks near Bridge street.

Personal Mention

Accompanied by their son, Ensign W. R. Munroe, U. S. N., Judge Richard I. Munroe and his wife returned home yesterday from a stay of several weeks at Quincy, Fla. Ensign Munroe, whose furlough expires in ten days, will be attached to the navy yard at San Francisco when he leaves his parents, and will superintend the building of submarines. For the past year he has commanded the U. S. S. Warten, a torpedo boat destroyer, which most of the time has been stationed at the Brooklyn navy yard.

Dr. L. L. McGlasson, for the past two years state quarantine officer at Galveston, is in Waco visiting his home. He is a local surgeon for the Cotton Belt railway, lieutenant in the medical corps of the state national guards, Shriner, thirty-second degree Mason, born in Kentucky and raised in Waco. He received his medical education at the Louisville medical college, of which he is a graduate.

The tub bath department at the Nat is perfect in appointment and the best in the city; competent attendant; course tickets, five baths, for $1 or 25c each. (advvt)

GIVES CHRISTMAS CANTATA

Choir of the Columbus Street Baptist Church Has a Musical Entertainment.

Under the leadership of Mrs. D. J. Byars, the choir of the Columbus Street Baptist church last night furnished a feast of music to a capacity house, rendering Ira Bishop Wilson's "The Everlasting Light," a Christmas cantata.

Voices, many of them better in quality and by training than those of well paid opera singers, blended together in harmonious unison in the song of praise and joy.

That Mrs. Byars had left no stone unturned to produce an effective rendition of the song was seen by the perfect execution on the part of thirty members of the choir. After the benediction by Rev. F. S. Groner, pastor of the church, a reception was tendered in honor of the choir.

Those taking part, aside from Mrs. Byars, the director, and Harry Lee Spencer, pianist, were:

First Sopranos—Mrs. R. H. Finley, Miss Jessie Lacy, Miss Sallie Keith, Mrs. H. L. Spencer, Mrs. J. D. Byars.

Second Sopranos—Mrs. G. W. Oliver, Mrs. C. C. Woodruff, Mrs. J. C. Warner, Mrs. M. C. Baugh, Miss Helen Lacy, Mrs. Howell James.

First Altos—Mrs. W. B. Thompson, Mrs. Fehrenbach, Mrs. J. E. Osborne, Mrs. Tom Hamilton.

Second Altos—Miss Mamie Keith, Mrs. E. B. Garrett, Mrs. W. H. Gohagan.

Tenors—Rush Berry, Loyd Bonner, Henry Stubblefield, L. J. Robinson, H. R. Boggess, S. M. Myers, Clyde Webb.

Bassos—Tom Hamilton, Howell James, W. D. Daniels, W. H. Gohagan.

CHILDREN START A FIRE.

Little Fellows Cause a Loss of Out-houses on Sixteenth and West.

A fire that started when one of two boys under 5 years old struck a match and touched it to a pile of papers destroyed two servants' quarters at Sixteenth and West at 11 o'clock yesterday. Each of the boys, who live in the neighborhood, ran home and told their mother the other boy set the papers on fire.

The damage to the two small frame buildings was estimated by Fire Marshal Dan Nicholson at about $400. One of the houses belonged to a Mr. Hill and the other was the property of Will Humphries until a week ago when he sold it to a physician to start a home for inebriates.

The fire marshal warned the children's parents about the danger in allowing their boys to go about with matches.

OUR SIDE OF IT.

It has become recognized all over the country that at least SOME unfair accident claims are brought against railroads and street car companies.

There have been magazine and newspaper articles full of interesting information as to how unscrupulous lawyers and even organized gangs of criminals go to work to "milk" the corporations. There is perjured testimony and sometimes attempts to bribe men on the jury.

It is often SAID that jurymen are ready to show prejudice against a corporation. If this is true, it is a sad reflection upon the justice of men that they should be moved by a woman's tears or a man's tale of woe to place an undeserved burden on a blameless party. Our courts are not for that. But never mind—just help us to run down and expose the dishonest lawyer—the criminal "ambulance chaser" who ATTEMPTS to corrupt our juries.

Help us to put in jail the bearer of FALSE witness—the man or woman who will sell their testimony. "Fake damage claims give the impression that travel is not safe."

YOUR SIDE OF IT.

Make this company pay every cent's worth of damages for any accident in the future for which it is to blame.

But realize that it is hard for this company to distinguish between real and "fake" claims. The latter are sometimes very deceptive, so if the public will help to prevent FRAUDULENT suits against us, it will be easier for us to recognize and pay any fair claims.

And make it easy to place the blame for a possible accident upon the company by doing what you can to make the people who ride careful and blameless themselves.

CLIFTON OFFICER IS ARRESTED

Makes Mistake in Serving Warrant for Misdeemeanor on Son of the Sheriff.

Scorning the aid of the McLennan county sheriff's office, George Price, constable of the Clifton precinct, Bosque county, came to Waco yesterday, and made an arrest.

The warrant which the officer brought called for the arrest of one Frank Fleming for intoxication. Constable Price found Sheriff S. S. Fleming's son working at his father's home. The boy was unaware of the approach of danger as the officer neared the place, since he had no knowledge that a warrant issued against his father and since, according to members of the family, he has never been in Bosque county in his life.

Informing that he was under arrest, the boy asked that he be allowed to call his father on the telephone and state the case. He did so. Sheriff Fleming asked to speak with the constable. He informed the man, over the telephone that he must be mistaken and assured him that if he would leave the boy at home and come down to the sheriff's office he would furnish all the bond necessary.

Constable Price, on the contrary, made the boy dress and escort him down to the sheriff's office, where he insisted that bond should be made. His warrant, he assured the officers, called for the arrest of Frank Fleming. While arrangements were being made for the bond, he left the boy in the sheriff's office but informed the officers where they could find him when they wanted to turn the bond over to him.

Sheriff Fleming, meantime, sought advice from the new county attorney, J. B. McNamara, and a capias was issued for the arrest of said John Price, constable, and said capias was turned over to Sheriff Fleming.

Taking also the bond of $50 under which his son had been released, Sheriff Fleming made his way to a pool hall and there found the constable.

"Of course, I don't remember whether there's anything in that case," the constable began, as he took the bond. "Oh, that's all right," said the smiling, good-natured sheriff. "Now I want you to come with me. You are under arrest."

"On what ground?" asked the constable.

"On a charge of false imprisonment. Here is the capias."

Then it was that the constable accompanied the sheriff back to the latter's office.

Sheriff Fleming courteously furnished the services of Deputy Sheriff Sparks, who walked about the city with the Clifton officer to permit him to rustle up signers for a $300 bond. The bond was fixed and the constable will appear before the county court in February.

The usual procedure when an officer from one county goes into another to secure a prisoner, is to communicate with the sheriff or constable of the county and secure the assistance of the local officers. It's only a matter of etiquette.

It is also unusual for an officer to serve misdemeanor warrants in an adjacent county in view of the fact that it falls to the latter's lot to foot the bill for transportation of the prisoner unless a conviction follows.

It is unusual for an officer to arrest a man if there is question as to whether he is the right man.

Sheriff Fleming stated yesterday that he might institute suit on the constable's bond as a result of the matter, pending the decision of the case in the county court.

He is positive that his son was not in Clifton during the holidays, that he has never taken a drink and that he has never been in a saloon nor been away from his home all night at any time in his life, and he says the proof can be supplied.

JUDGE L. C. ALEXANDER ILL

Suffers Stroke of Paralysis While on Visit to His Daughter in Dallas.

Suffering from a stroke of paralysis, the second which has affected him, Judge L. C. Alexander was brought to his home, No. 1212 Franklin street, yesterday from Dallas.

Judge Alexander was visiting his daughter in Dallas at the time the paralysis came upon him. It affects one side, an arm and a limb, but there is no affection of the vital organs, and his power of speech, his mind, his sight and hearing are not affected. He is able to see his friends, and quite a number called yesterday when they learned of his illness.

Judge Alexander is one of the best known lawyers who ever lived in Waco. Having long experience at the bar and his ready wit, his deep knowledge of the law and his keen blade in argument and debate gained for him a wide reputation as a lawyer and there is no man of the Waco bar who stands higher among the people. He had a stroke of paralysis once before, but appeared to have recovered from it, and his friends, although solicitous of his health, have believed he was restored to good physical condition.

When you feel worn out, entirely in, so to say, take a Turkish bath at the Nat and if it does not improve you quicker and better than medicine will we will refund your money. (adv)tf

BOWLING AT THE HUACO CLUB

Tournament is to Begin Tonight, With Loving Cup to be the Final Prize.

A bowling tournament will begin at the Huaco club tonight to continue through January, with four teams participating under the leadership of Captains C. J. Cartwright, J. B. Fisher, A. H. Bell and Clint Padgett. A record will be kept of the scores and the player making the highest average during the tournament will receive a loving cup. The losers will treat the winners and themselves to a "Dutch lunch" after each game.

The first game will be played tonight between Clint Padgett and J. B. Fisher's teams. C. J. Cartwright's and A. H. Bell's teams will play Wednesday night. The two teams will play alternate games until two games out of three are won and then the winning teams will play off the three games for the championship after the week beginning January 13.

ENGELKING SUCCEEDS BOYNTON

Under Instructions of President Taft, Judge Maxey Names Federal District Attorney.

The office of United States District Attorney for the Western district of Texas, resigned by Charles A. Boynton of Waco, effective January 1, was vacant one day. At the instance of President Taft, Federal Judge T. S. Maxey of Austin was authorized to appoint Boynton's successor and he yesterday, named S. Engelking of San Antonio to the office and he has accepted.

Mr. Engelking resigned as assistant district attorney under Mr. Boynton last November. He lived at El Paso at the time and has since moved to the general law practice. He is, perhaps, the best qualified man that could be named to take up the work immediately and proceed with government prosecutions that will arise in the term of court about to convene at San Antonio.

It is very probable that the appointment of Mr. Engelking will remain until after the change in the national administration, which will place the office in the hands of the democrats.

Complying with the request of many patrons, the Natatorium will be open for ladies and gentlemen bathers every night from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday nights for ladies and escorts only. Thursday and Saturday mornings for ladies only. (adv)tf

4 Diamond Rings.....	$ 700.00
4 $50 Cash Prizes.....	$ 200.00
4 $30 Solid Gold Watches.....	$ 120.00
Total.....	$ 6,120.00

Just four weeks from today and the great Morning News contest will come to an end, and will pass into history as one of the greatest affairs of its kind ever attempted in the Lone Star

while the opportunity is an incentive, the person subscribing feels that full value is received for the money in subscription to The Morning News.

False Rumors.

Do not believe all you hear. Some one will try to discourage every good thing. False rumors of all sorts will be going around and the contestant should not allow anyone to discourage her by telling different things they have heard. Kindly remember she who works will win.

Surprises Coming.

During the next two weeks those contestants who have been getting along very well without making much of a hustle are due for the awakening.

The girls who appreciate the fact that good things have to be gone after are not going to let prizes that are now headed in their direction get past them without making an effort to get them. There is evidence here and there that there will be some stunts done in making the canvass that will surprise a great many.

The mails will be used liberally. The postal card canvass is very popular and brings good results. A report comes from a candidate that she is using the billboards to promote her cause. This is not the best publicity, because the appeal is not sufficiently direct. It is necessary to enlist the personal interest of the possible voter.

Subscription Ballots.

All ballots issued on subscription payments are good any time during the contest, and for this reason we do not deem it advisable to hold their subscription back. By having the paper started to the subscribers you will be able to secure their coupons and nomination blanks.

Open Evenings.

For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours, the contest department will be open every evening until 8 o'clock.

BUSINESS DEALS GOOD

BRADSTREET'S AND DUN'S REPORTS SHOW CONDITIONS ABOVE NORMAL.

While Trade Slows Down for Holidays, Indications Are That Pace Will Recover.

New York, Jan. 3.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: After traveling at a brisk pace, business has slowed down though less so than usual at this season. Confidence in the future is in evidence.

Retail dealers enjoyed an unexampled holiday trade. In a host of industries consumption bids fair to overtop production for some time and the iron and steel industry probably never entered a new twelve months under more auspicious conditions.

Money is in demand and remains firm, but signs lead to the belief that more comfortable rates are not a long way off.

Business failures for the week ending January 2 were 287 against 349 in the like week of 1912. There were twenty-four failures in Canada during the week.

BIG CROPS AID.

New Year Opens With Many Gains and Advantages.

New York, Jan. 3.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say: The new year opens with all the gains and advantages achieved during the last half of 1912. The new year takes over from the old the increased agricultural wealth resulting from the big crops, the great activity in the largest industries, the augmented confidence in branches of domestic trade, the record-breaking foreign commerce and the full employment of labor at high wages, insuring large buying power. With this legacy from 1912, the maintenance of a satisfactory volume of business apparently is assured.

Bank clearings during 1912 increased 9.3 per cent over 1911. Railroad traffic is heavy.

In the cotton and woolen trades the outlook is an encouraging one. From all the leading cities both east and west the end of the year advances are satisfactory in most of the material points and generally an optimistic spirit prevails.

COTTON DEALS AT NEW ORLEANS

Secretary Hester's Figures Show Decrease for Month of December Compared With 1911.

New Orleans, Jan. 3.—Secretary Hester's New Orleans cotton exchange statement, issued today, covered the monthly movement to the close of December.

Compared with last year it shows a decrease for the month in round figures of 205,000 bales, compared with year before last, an increase of 51,000 and with 1909 an increase of 987,000.

The total for December was 2,295,999 against 2,506,772 last year, 2,249,254 year before last and 1,312,095 same time in 1909.

The movement from September 1 to December 31 inclusive shows receipts at all United States ports 7,053,103 against 7,249,725 last year, 6,121,503 year before last and 5,974,545 same time in 1909; overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to northern mills and Canada 523,825 against 505,537 last year, 519,877 year before last and 426,158 same time in 1909; southern mills takings, exclusive of quantity consumed at southern outports, 1,258,000 against 1,039,000 last year, 968,000 year before last and 987,000 same time in 1909, and interior stocks in excess of those held of the commencement of the season 733,664 against 852,326 last year, 753,052 year before last and 683,182 same time in 1909.

These make the total movement of the cotton crop brought into sight during the four months ending close of December 9,568,150 against 9,646,588 last year, 8,362,812 year before last and 7,120,928 same time in 1909. Northern spinners took during December 474,974 bales against 393,923 last year and 375,438 year before last, increasing their total for the four months to 1,289,437 against 1,229,437 last year and 1,277,099 the year before. This makes their average weekly takings for the season 73,985 against 62,455 last year and 73,279 the year before.

Foreign exports for the four months of the season have been 5,301,106 bales, showing an increase over last season of 137,397, an increase over the same period year before last of 3,939,816. Stocks at the seaboard and the 29 leading southern and interior markets on December 31 were 2,248,780 against 2,479,561 the same date last year and 1,988,586 the year before.

Including port and interior town stocks left over from the preceding season and the number of bales of the current crop brought into sight during the four months, the supply has been 9,532,863 against 9,532,562 last year and 8,610,774 the year before.

Up to December 31 last year 59.77-100 per cent of the cotton crop had been marketed and for the same months in 1910 the percentage of the crop brought into sight was 69, and for the same time in 1909 the percentage marketed was 67.12-100.

COTTON REVIEW OF WEEK.

General Business Remains Quiet at New York.

New York, Jan. 3.—General business remained very quiet in the cotton market during the past week but considerable excitement and nervousness developed in connection with January contracts, which made new high records for the season.

The local futures market had been ruling considerably under a party with actual cotton in the south, with the stock available here a comparatively small one, and after leading trade interests had accepted January deliveries of about 20,000 bales, shorts evidently became uneasy.

An effort to cover found very little cotton offering and before more than 25,000 bales could be secured the price was forced above the 13-cent level for the first time since the present crop began to move in any volume.

Later months responded only moderately to the January strength and at the close of business tonight were still selling about 25 to 30 points below the high level of December.

Aside from the feature of importance has presented itself during the week and speculative international evidently has been restricted by holiday considerations or conflicting opinions as to the general outlook.

The advance in January contracts was most commonly considered in the nature of a partial readjustment between contracts and southern spot.

Private ginning figures published during the week have pointed to a census report next Friday of around 12,000,000 bales ginned to January 1. Liverpool has reported a better demand from the continent.

Port Receipts. New York, Jan. 3.—The following are the total net receipts at all ports since September 1:

COTTON TAKES FALL

CLOSE BARELY STEADY AT DECLINE OF 3 TO 15 POINTS FRIDAY.

Advance Made at Opening Soon Lost. Spot Buyers of Yesterday Become Sellers.

New York, Jan. 3.—As the demand from January shorts was far less urgent after yesterday's covering movement, while general business continued very quiet, the cotton market was easier today, with the close barely steady at a net decline of 3 to 15 points, but generally 11 to 15 points net lower.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 10 points with January making a new high record, as it sold to 13 1/2 or about 67 points above the low level reached between Christmas and New Year's.

Liverpool, however, failed to fully meet the New York advance of yesterday, while the January short interest seemed to have pretty well been eliminated above the 13-cent level and the market soon developed a tendency to ease off.

The circulation of a few additional January notices caused some scattering liquidation around the ring. After holding generally steady during the middle of the day prices weakened at the late trading hours, when it was rumored that some of the large spot people who had been buyers yesterday and this morning were reducing their lines and the market closed at the lowest point of the day.

New York, Jan. 3.—The cotton market closed barely steady.

COTTON SUPPLY OF WORLD

Figures Compiled by Hester Show Decrease Over Last Week and Increase Over 1912.

New Orleans, Jan. 3.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton made up from special cable and telegraphic advices compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before. It shows a decrease for the week of 17,323 against an increase of 75,059 last year and an increase of 22,342 year before last.

The total visible is 6,275,681 against 6,293,004 last week, 5,541,256 last year and 5,321,321 year before last. Of this total of American cotton is 4,854,256 last year and 4,282,321 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,199,000 against 1,164,000 last week, 787,000 last year and 1,039,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton is now above last week, and in the increase compared with last year of 624,425 and an increase compared with year before last of 954,460.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton as above there is now afloat in the world 1,935,000 against 2,702,000 last year and 2,705,000 year before last; in Egypt 327,000 against 250,000 last year and 256,000 year before last; in India 480,000 against 280,000 last year and 265,000 year before last; in the United States 3,484,000 against 2,495,000 last year and 1,955,000 year before last.

American Cotton Throughout World. New Orleans, Jan. 3.—Secretary Hester gives the taking of American cotton by spinners throughout the world as follows, in round numbers: This week 449,000, last week against 345,000 last year, 392,000 year before last.

Total since September 1 this year 5,989,000 against 5,814,000 last year and 5,005,000 the year before. STOCK PRICES DROP

SENTIMENT SWINGS TO BEAR SIDE OF THE MARKET EARLY.

Sudden Change Comes Unexpected and No Cause Could Be Assigned for Depression.

New York, Jan. 3.—Sentiment veered to the bear side of the market today and prices went down as decisively as they went up yesterday. Losses of 1 to 2 points were general with Union Pacific, Reading, the copper stocks and steel playing an important part in the day's decline. No specific cause could be assigned for the sudden change in the aspect of the market after its display of strength recently.

The position of the London market and less favorable reports as to the peace conference also contributed to the growth of bearish sentiment. Little business was transacted for London account today although there was some direct buying on cables from the continent. Passage of the American Beet Sugar caused a decline in this issue to a loss of 6 1/2. Western Maryland was again weak.

The common dropped 4 1/2 points and the preferred 6 1/2. The move against the market, rising 4 points. A renewal rate of 4 1/2 per cent for call loans compared favorably with the rate of 12 1/2 per cent a week ago and call funds were placed at lower figures late in the day. Time money also was easier.

Bonds were irregular; total sales, par value, $2,150,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.
